Beauty Dominates Lines of New 1936 Ford V-8

In this attractive layout of beautiful car and beautiful womanhood, the new 1936 Ford V-8 is indeed striking. In the upper photograph is seen the new Ford touring sedan. The lines of the stylist are combined to make the most beautiful car Ford ever built. At the lower left, the case with which ventilation is obtained is illustrated. At the lower right, attention is called particularly to the beauty of the on-coming car, with longer hood, longer rows of louvers, horns set in grilles below headlights, fenders with a more graceful sweep, radiator with its drop into a V, new radiator ornament and the other details which go to make up the finished car. The upper photograph brings out the new steel wheels, which, though lighter, are as strong as those used in 1935. Hub design is particularly pleasing.

"Drunkard" Now In 121st Week, Is Popular Locally

Torrance Folks Frequent Patrons At Novel Melodrama and Olio

Many local people have enjoyed theatre parties at "The Drunkard" and some have attended the famous melodrama and olio several times, according to Lloyd Mitchell, manager of the Mitchell Theatre Ticket Office in Doley Drug Company at 1225 El Prado, phone Torrance 10, where tickets are on sale at regular box office prices (plus phone toll).
 Galt Bell's original revival of "The Drunkard," which was first produced in the late forties in Boston and a few years later at the P. T. Barnum American Museum in New York, started its record run at the Theatre Mart in Los Angeles on July 6, 1933, and is now in its 121st week. It has already passed its only competitor for long runs outside of New York, "White Collars," which ran 120 weeks over a decade ago.

Hollywood screen stars have made the Theatre Mart their playground during the sensational three-year run. Some of them make the unique show a weekly event. Mae West likes to go and sit unnoticed. Will Rogers went one night and did a 15-minute impromptu act with Fred Stone, the dance they had done 25 years ago. Irvin Cobb publicly declared he had the best time he had had in 40 years. Charlie Chaplin, John Barrymore, Edmund Lowe, Mary Pickford, Marlene Dietrich—they've all been there.
 "The Drunkard" has achieved success despite the breaking of many theatrical rules. The Theatre Mart is situated on a little side street far away from the theatrical rialto. It is not brilliantly illuminated, has no pictures of actors adorning the front of the house or lobby, nor does even the name of the show appear anywhere. The cast which still remains intact boasts no names of unusual drawing power. The waitresses who serve the spectators are all art school students and the posters on the walls of the theatre are their work.

STATE RULES against checks FOR AUTO FEE

SACRAMENTO.—California's motorists will have to use something besides personal checks in paying for their motor vehicle registrations and vehicle license fees hereafter.

Department of motor vehicles announces that cash, post office money orders, cashier's checks or express money orders only will be accepted at all offices for registration number plates or any other department transaction.

Annual efforts of the division in running down bad checks have worked a great handicap on the efficiency of the department and the cost in postage has become exorbitant. According to J. C. Toomey, chief of division of accounting, it has often cost taxpayers more than $20 to send a California highway patrol officer to collect a $3 fee paid by bad check.

"Barbary Coast" Lives Again On Plaza Screen

America's Last Frontier of Untamed Emotions In Goldwyn Drama

The "Barbary Coast," America's last frontier of untamed emotions, lives again in all its stark, rowdy realism in Samuel Goldwyn's production of that title which begins a three-day engagement at the Plaza Theatre on Sunday, with Miriam Hopkins, Edward G. Robinson and Joel McCrea in its leading roles.

Her first picture under her new contract to Goldwyn, "Barbary Coast" offers Miriam Hopkins her greatest role as Swan, a beautiful girl who invades this gold-mad city of love-hungry men and becomes hard as cold as the diamonds with which she is decked by Chamalis, powerful, ruthless owner of the notorious Bella Donna cafe, over whose crooked roulette table she reigns.

Love Wanders In Into this struggling mass of humanity wanders Jim Carmichael, a fine, clean-cut young chap, who has made his strike. He and Swan fall in love, but the man meets a bitter disillusionment when he discovers her connection with the Bella Donna.

Death and destruction stalk the scene and Chamalis' jealous rage nearly turns the romance into tragedy before the lovers are free to face the future together.

Robinson is seen as the brutal Chamalis and Joel McCrea, who has also just signed a long-term contract with Goldwyn, plays Jim.

Charles MacArthur and Ben Hecht wrote the screenplay of "Barbary Coast." Howard Hawks handled the megaphone. The supporting cast includes Walter Brennan, Frank Craven, Brian Donlevy, Clyde Cook, Harry Carey, Donald Meek and many others. "Barbary Coast" is released through United Artists.
